

More mobility. More efficiency. More precision.

Compact and always ready

Lightweight, small footprint for easy transport and quick setup in stables or on the field.

ORCA® Cloud

Your images – anytime, anywhere

Cloud-based storage and access, enabling remote reporting and sharing of images with colleagues or clients

Anti-glare full HD touchscreen monitor for reduced reflections and sharp images

Built for the field

Splash-proof, shock-absorbing composite housing ensures maximum durability in demanding field environments

Always connected – even in the field

Seamless mobile data connection for instant uploads, remote consultations and smooth workflow in the field

Storage space for accessories for perfect organisation and tidiness

Service package for clear cost structures without unexpected additional costs for data connection, software and hardware

Crisp X-ray images – instantly available

Proven image processing technology delivers sharp, detailed and instantly available diagnostic images

High-quality laptop for high-performance image processing

Status display of the entire system in 4 colours for direct visualisation of the workflow

Additional charging option with USB-C car charger for convenient charging in the car

Smart power for long days

Integrated Smart Power Concept, flexible charging cycles and USB-C charging for up to 10 hours of runtime

Easy removal of the X-ray detector including protection box from the padded transport compartment

Additional charging option with USB-C car charger for convenient charging in the car

